

Arts and humanities Entrepreneurship Hubs (AHEH)

- Pilot Training, Nov 4th-8th 2019 in Alcala de Henares (Spain)

Are you a student in arts or humanities? Or perhaps a student in other fields that has personal interests and/or hobbies related to culture?

The AHEH alliance brings together 14 partners from across 7 EU member states to improve the capacity of arts and humanities students in cultural policies, cultural industries, projects and entrepreneurial skills. The aim of the project is to jointly research, design, test and disseminate an innovative programme of entrepreneurial training for A&H staff/students aligned with the EntreComp Competence Framework.

We are starting the recruitment process for participants to join us to our project's first 5-day Pilot Training in Alcala de Henares (Spain). Please read more on the background, objectives and expected outcomes of the project at: <https://www.artshumanitieshub.eu/>.

What we offer:

- 5-day workshop with some of the most successful students and cultural workers,
- Sharing the experiences and innovative ideas related to your cultural interests,
- Learning and familiarizing yourself with project development, ideation processes and/or business development connected to arts and humanities

Flights and accommodation will be completely covered by the project (in cooperation with Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, University of Rijeka).

What we expect:

- Motivation and a strong commitment to furthering the aims of the project
- Be at least second BA year (preddiplomski studij) or higher at the time of the pilot workshop
- Innovative thinking of how the arts and humanities can better serve today's society
- A preliminary idea for a creative project that could benefit from this training program
