GENERAL NOTES

International students can choose courses from both undergraduate and graduate studies regardless of their study level. FHSS Rijeka has no restrictions on enrolment in courses and undergraduate students can take courses from graduate programmes and vice versa.

All courses from the catalogue are available in English language or other foreign languages. If the student has sufficient competences in Croatian language, she/he can take courses from regular study programmes with previous consultations with course instructor.

Certain courses may be offered only if enough students register for the course. This information will be available at the beginning of each semester.

COURSE STATUS

Courses intended only for students from a specific field of study (i.e., psychology, art history, foreign languages etc.) may be marked as C (Closed) and those courses require student having previous knowledge of the course subject.

Courses with no prerequisites are marked as O (Open) and are available to all students regardless of their field of study or study major.

Certain courses may be offered to international students in the form of individual tutorials/consultations. Students work one-on-one with the course instructor and exams are held in English (or other foreign language).

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

Minimum level of language proficiency for all courses at all FHSS departments is B2 unless otherwise stated or if specific to a particular course.

During the application process students are required to supply a proof of language competences issued by relevant authority and in line with CEFR.
