About Library

The library of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences of the University of Rijeka was founded as the library of the Higher Professional Pedagogical School in 1953. Until 1977, it operated in two locations, and since moving to the Rijeka Campus in 2011, it has been operating as a modern library and information and communication service of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences.

The Library's working hours are every working day (Mon-Fri), from 9:00 to 17:00.

The lending department of the Library is located on the 3rd floor of the Faculty building in room 304, and the staff offices and library collection storage are on the 1st floor, rooms 130-134.

A student reading room is available to users for quiet work and study.

Enrollment in the Library

Library services can be used by students, employees and external associates of the Faculty, students and employees of other components and organizational units of the University of Rijeka, and other citizens.

Students and all individuals with an AAI identity become library users by giving their consent, while other citizens become users by presenting a completed registration form and an ID card.

The registration form can be downloaded from the Library's website or obtained at the Library desk. For students, the library card is their student ID card, while for other users, the card is issued by the Library.

LIBRARY FUND

The library fund is interdisciplinary, mostly covering social and humanistic sciences, adapted to the needs of studying and scientific working at the Faculty with approximately 85.000 units. The content of the fund: monographs, journals, Master's theses, Doctoral dissertations and electronic materials.

THE FUND HAS AN OPEN ACCESS

under the condition that you leave your personal belongings in the locker for which you will get a key. If you want the librarian to bring you the materials you need you have to fill out the promissory note.

Promissory note: a piece of paper located next to the research computers which must be fulfilled according to the specific items from the online catalog (author of the work, title, signature, your first and last name)

LIBRARY FUND

Online catalog

The books and other materials can be searched through the online catalog. It is the fastest and the most efficient way to find the certain literature and information that are in the library fund.

The Library's online catalog of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Rijeka (FFRI) provides integrated access to physical, electronic, and digital library materials. Through the catalog, you can access library collections, scientific journals, open-access academic sources, and databases available via national subscription.

The catalog enables searching the Library's entire collection, checking the availability of materials for loan, and—through advanced search options and interactive queries to the AI assistant—finding relevant sources beyond the Library's holdings. For additional information and assistance in using the catalog, please contact us.

Online catalog – the signature

The most important thing to find a certain book in the Library is - the signature (call number)! It is a number that marks the place of the book on the shelf and makes the finding of the book easier. It is important to write down the correct signature on the promissory note.

What is the book dropbox?

The book dropbox is the place where you can return or leave the books during the Library opening hours as well as when the Library is closed. It is good to use the book dropbox when you are returning the books and do not want to borrow the new ones. The books you leave in the book dropbox till 16.30 will be discharged the same day you left them while the books you leave after 16.30 will be discharged the following working day and all this should be noted so that the late fee is avoided.

Interlibrary loan

For the important and specific copies of the library materials which are not in the fund and cannot be found in the other libraries in Rijeka area, the Library organizes interlibrary loan. This service is only for the library materials which are necessary for the students' studying and researching. The library materials are borrowed from the other libraries which then decide the loan terms and the conditions of the loan. The interlibrary loan from the National and University Library in Zagreb is charged according to the valid price list.
