

UNIRI

University Counseling Center (UCC)

Who we are and what we do

UCC is a constituent of University of Rijeka that provides students and staff of the University with different forms of free support and counseling.

University
Counseling
Center

University Counseling Center (UCC)

Office for Students with Disabilities

Psychological
Counseling Office

Career Office

Psychological Counseling Office

Contact us:

- If you have problems of academic nature
- If you have problems of personal nature (anxiety, depression, low self-esteem, problems in relationships...)

What do we offer?

- Individual and group psychological treatments
- Psihoeducational workshops and lectures
- Materials for self-help

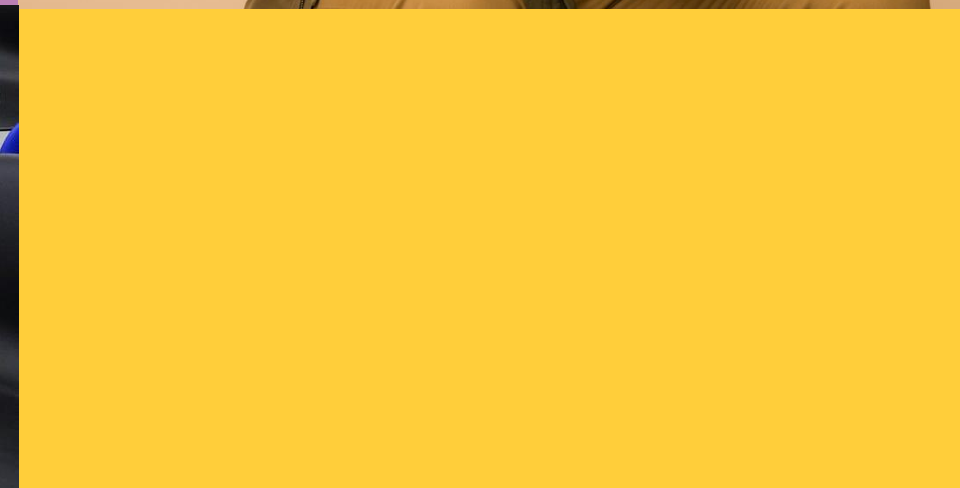

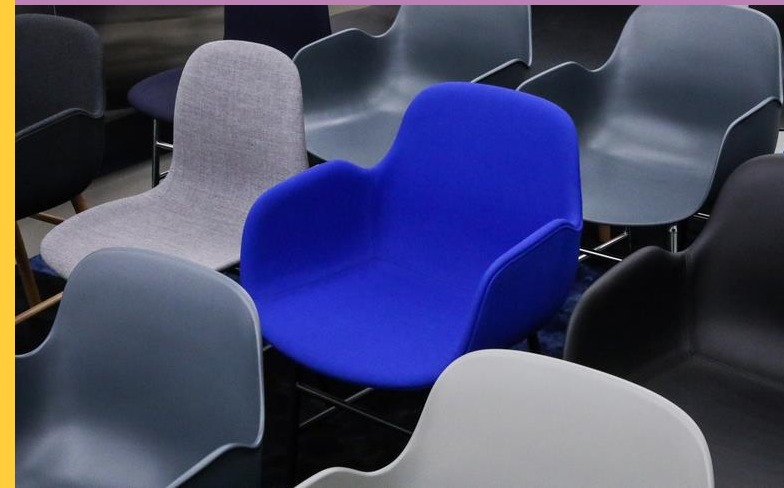

Career Office

Contact us:

- If you have doubts about choosing your study program
- If you lack information about the options of gaining work experience
- If you are interested in learning how to write a job application, CV and presenting yourself in the best way to potential employers

What do we offer?

- Individual counseling
- Educational workshops and lectures, discussion forums aimed at informing and developing competencies needed to overcome the challenges of labor market

Office for Students with Disabilities

Contact us:

- If you are interested in how to achieve your rights on the basis of disabilities and difficulties that affect your studying process
- If you need adjustments of the teaching process, examination and literature

What do we offer?

- Different types of support, according to student individual needs
- Informing, counseling and educational activities

Where can you find us?

In the building of the Faculty of Civil Engineering on Campus (Trsat), 1. floor;
Address: Radmile Matejčić 3, 51 000 Rijeka

- 1 Main entrance
- 2 Side entrance
- 3 Entrance to the garage

For additional information and other useful advices visit:

www.ssc.uniri.hr

<https://www.facebook.com/ssc.uniri>

Seeking help is a sign of maturity, not weakness!

University Counseling Center

